RESPECT THE REFS

LET 'EM PLAY PLEDGE:

- > I realize there are only four roles in sport – player, coach, official or fan. I will select one and respect the others
- > I understand my child is the participant, not me, and my expectations are based on my child's needs, not mine
- > I avoid coaching from the stands, and I also avoid criticizing officials, coaches and opposing players
- > If I coach my child's team, I seek to model appropriate behavior and sportsmanship
- > I let the coaches coach and the officials officiate
- > I avoid criticizing officials, coaches or players – both during the game and after
- > I treat coaches, officials, players and other parents with respect
